

If I Were In Charge of the World

Imagine if the world were in your hands!
Wow! Talk about incredible power. With this poem, you can shape the world we live in----well, in you imagination, anyway.

If I Were In Charge of the World

This poem will include five stanzas.

The first four stanzas will each have four lines. The fifth stanza will have only two lines.

The first line of every stanza will be “If I were in charge of the world,

Each stanza should address a single topic, with each line in the stanza relating to the others.

The final line of the poem will be Life would be

_____.

What is the injustice in each stanza?

If I Were In Charge Of The World

If I were in charge of the world,
No one would care about others ethnicity. It Wouldn't matter if you're black or white, we Could all live in peace and live happily.

If I were in charge of the world,
There would be no prejudice on who you Attract. Everyone could love who they Want without any labels or judgment.

If I were in charge of the world,
There would be no social classes.
No one would live in poverty and Neighbors would be equal to neighbors.

If I were in charge of the world,
No one would ever be hungry.
There would be no such thing as starvation because everyone would receive proper nutrition.

If I were in charge of the world,
Life would be INCREDIBLE.

If I Were in Charge of the World

What do you notice about the first word in each line?

If I were in charge of the world,
Everybody would be treated equally.
Nobody would be discriminated on their Skin color, beliefs, wealth, or physical appearances

If I were in charge of the world,
No one in the world would ever get sick.
There would be no fatal diseases and
Everyone would be healthy.

If I were in charge of the world,
Each person would have a family, food and a home.
There would be no one living in the streets that doesn't
Have a family, home, or food.

If I were in charge of the world,
War among countries wouldn't occur.
People would not fight with each other and
There would be no conflict with people and countries

If I were in charge of the world,
Life would be Magnificent.
