

POP- UP Book Creative Story

Definition: Descriptive writing based on the research chosen by the student, and written in a way that helps a reader see it, smell it, and taste it, and that uses correct capitals, ending punctuation, and spelling.

Words from the Trade:

- Sounds
- Sights
- Odors
- Creative
- Punctuation
- Independence
- Achievement
- Confidence
- Author

Trade Hints:

- Writing is hard work!
- Write about something you are familiar with.
- Rewrite, rewrite, and rewrite!
- Remember to include all of the senses.
- Don't forget a title.
- Read How to Make the Pop-Up to learn to make pages for a pop-up book.

Project "Look-4s"

An excellent project has all of these elements:

- An opening that grabs the audience's attention
- Evidence of rewriting from the rough draft to the final story
- Attention to the details, including spelling and grammar
- Use of interesting and unusual descriptions that use all of the senses
- An ending that "ties up the loose ends" of your story

Writing Assessment
Performance Element	Wow! 	Getting there 	Work in progress
Response	Responds completely to prompt	Responds partially to prompt	May or may not respond to prompt
Conventions	Uses correct spelling and capitals and ending punctuation	Uses, for the most part, correct spelling and capitals and ending punctuation	Does not show mastery of rules for spelling or correct capitals and ending punctuation
Ideas and Sentences	Writes several complete sentences	Expresses complete thoughts although some sentences are fragments and run on	Expresses self in ways that inhibit reader's understanding
Descriptive Language	Uses vivid descriptive language; appeals to senses of sight, smell, and taste	Uses language that appeals to at least one sense	Does not use language that appeals to the senses
Beginning and Ending	Creative introductory and concluding paragraphs hold audience's attention	Adequate introductory and concluding paragraphs	Missing either an introductory or concluding paragraph

POP- UP Book: How to Make the Pop- Upⁱ

Step 1:
Begin with an 8 1/2" x 11" piece of construction paper or card stock. Card stock works best and is easily obtained from any office supply store.

You may also begin by using a manila filing folder. This may be easier for very young pop-up makers (if using a manila filing folder skip to Step 3).

Step 2:
Fold the construction paper in half to form a card

Step 3:
Draw two parallel lines of equal height towards the fold of the card.
The lines don't have to be perfect as long as they are the same height.

Step 4:
Cut along both lines starting at the folded edge.

Step 5:
Fold the cut section back...

Step 6:
...and crease well along the edge with your thumb or finger.

Step 7:
Put the cut strip back in its original position.

Step 8:
Open the card up like a tent.

Step 9:
Using your thumbs, push the cut strip through to the other side of the card.

Step 10:
Close the card...

Step 11:
...and press firmly.

Step 12:
Open your Layer Pop-up!

ⁱ From <http://robertsabuda.com/popmakesimple.asp>