Our Learning This Week:

Reading: This week, we talked about analyzing characters' relationships with other characters in a book called: The Recess Queen. We looked at how two characters, Mean Jean and Katie Sue had a changed relationship from the beginning of the book to end. We will be taking our outcome assessment soon on making connections next week as well.

Writing: Students are hopeful to finish their opinion writing soon! Students also completed a 100th day writing that is posted outside of our classroom! After opinion, we will focus on a new unit with writing!

Math: This week, we took a mid-module assessment; so expect those to come home next week! We will continue working on module 4 skills throughout the week. Please make sure to practice zearn. Students can move at his/her own pace and it helps them be ahead of the game before the lesson!
