

Student Design T-shirt Contest Information 2017-2018 SY

Dear Teachers,

We will be conducting a Student Design T-shirt Contest for the current 1st grade, 4th grade and 7th grade students. There will be 1 winner selected from each grade. The winner's design will be featured on the front of the t-shirts ordered for the 2017-2018 School Year Kick-off Event held on August 22, 2017. The winner and their family will also have the opportunity to receive the final t-shirt.

We would like all 1st and 4th graders to participate in this contest and work on it during their Art class. Due to 7th grade alternating their Art classes we would like to announce this contest in their advisory period and it can be on a voluntary basis. If the 7th graders are interested, their advisory teacher will provide a form with instructions.

- 1st grade's design winner will represent the GP t-shirt
- 4th grade's design winner will represent the CH t-shirt
- 7th grade's design winner will represent the HCMS t-shirt

We are looking for a design that will fit the theme of our 2017-2018 School Year Kick-off Event. The theme is:

*Every Student Matters,
Every Moment Counts!*

Design Criteria:

- Must fit on the 8 ½ x 11 Student Design Form that we will provide to you via email. Please print out the amount of copies needed for your students.
- Within the black box on the lower right hand corner, the student must write their first name only, NEXT year's grade (example: 2nd Grade) and also the year (2017). The first name, grade and year will appear on the t-shirt as well. (the outlined box however will be removed)
- The design must be drawn in BLACK marker or BLACK colored pencil. NO OTHER COLORS CAN BE USED! Shading can be used in the design.

Due Date: Friday, May 5, 2017
